THE SPIRIT OF GOD MOVED

But

A natural man

Does not accept

The things of the Spirit of God;

For they are foolishness

To him, and he cannot

Understand them, because

They are spiritually appraised.

But

He who is spiritual

Appraises all things, yet

He himself is appraised

By no man.

For

Who has known

The mind of the Lord,

That he should instruct Him?

But

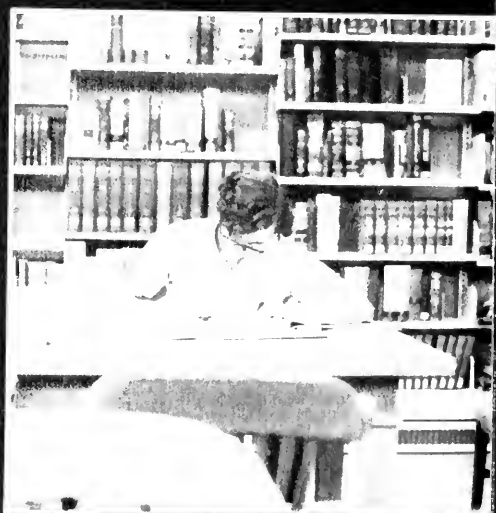

We have

The mind of Christ...

We Gratefully Dedicate this Issue

Thank you, Lord
For people You place
In our world
Through which You show us
Your Spirit
And relight our candles
In the dark storms of life,
During times when busy schedules
And many assignments
Seem to rush in and crowd out
An awareness of You.

Thank you, Lord
For people like
Nancy
Who spend their lives in service
For You -
Relighting candles,
Revealing Your Spirit,
Renewing our vision
By showing us You.

Thank you, Lord
For practical ways
In which she is ready
And willing to help -
In making appointments
And typing out notes,
By unlocking doors
Or taking a class -
And somehow showing Your love.

Thank you, Lord
For the places she's filling
By being both secretary
And Christian Ed. major,
So she can do research
And understand hangups
That face both the students and profs.

Thank you, Lord
For personality You gave her
In being so thoughtful and warm;
For those personal touches
That make office "home"
And show her creativeness there.

Yes, and we thank you, too, Lord
For that openness there
With that willingness
Always to hear,
And then, after hearing,
Her freshness in sharing
What You have shown to her too.

But most of all, thank you
For the life You gave Nancy
And put in each one of us too,
That we may endure
And encourage each other
To walk in Your Spirit each day;
To realize Your fullness
Can start to work in us...
Through typing or filing,
Through teaching or research,
Through walking or talking,
Through just being friendly
To someone in need.

Yes, Lord, just...
Thank You for Nancy.

MESSAGE FROM STUDENT COUNCIL
PRESIDENT

It is often a great challenge to understand how God is working in our lives. We read the Bible and believe. We speak to others about Christ and we thank God for giving us the words to speak. We pray and recognize that an Almighty God is the recipient of our petitions. As we strive in our daily living, often we have to sit down and tally up our score sheet. And often we find that there seems to be an element missing in our daily walk that seems essential.

The theme of our yearbook this year is the Holy Spirit in every facet of our lives. For this I am thankful because it is my conviction that the missing ingredient in the lives of many Christians, at our College and otherwise, is the filling of the Holy Spirit. Complete and total surrender is what God is looking for and the Holy Spirit saturating our lives is what is needed in order that the kingdom of our Lord Jesus may soon be complete.

Pray for this and commit yourselves and may the blessings of our Holy Father fill your lives.

John Schaper

MESSAGE FROM THE EDITOR

The purpose of a Christian college yearbook is two-fold. First it is to be a memorial of the year. Second, it has to be a witness of the Christ living in us. Many of us have had and will have opportunities to show it to unsaved friends. Will it tell them we are Christians or are we no different from any other school? I have therefore, tried to capture the actual school year as we lived it in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Again and again this year, I have been reminded of the supreme privilege I have in knowing Christ! - I learn of the God of the universe and begin to understand His purposes for the world. I meet with fellow believers and share with them in a way the world has never known. I have the privilege of worshipping God, Himself. I have the honour of being used in my Christian Service for His glory (...and the list goes on). All I can do is fall before Him and say "Thou art Worthy O Lord."

This may be my last year at OBC but I'm already looking forward to the day when we'll all worship Him together. But while we are still here let us allow His Spirit to use us to the uttermost and in this way show Him gratitude for Who He is and what He has done.

Ruth Sowpe1.

I Exhort...that... Prayers...be Made for All...in Authority. (1 Tim. 2:1, 2)

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

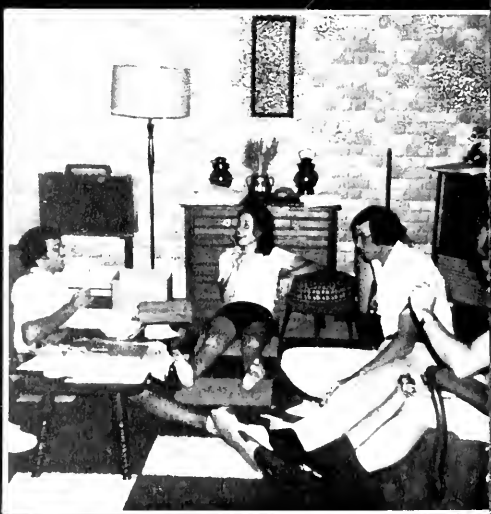

The theme of this 1974 Year-book is the continued working of the Holy Spirit in the lives of all of us here at Ontario Bible College. That is a great theme. Luke, the beloved physician, begins his Acts of the Apostles with the familiar words, "The former treatise have I made... of all that Jesus began both to do and teach, until the day in which He was taken up....." The implication is clear, that Christ continued to work through the Holy Spirit not only in the early days of the Church, but has done so all through her long history, and right until this very hour.

What a comforting word is this! It means, among other things, that God is at work in us as individuals, as well as in our beloved College. What could be more exciting? This is to say that the God Who restored to faithful Abraham his son, Who miraculously parted the Red Sea for Moses and the Israelites to pass over on dry land, and Who enabled His servant David the King to do such exploits for Him, is the same Almighty One Who today is ready to "show Himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward Him."

This means that, in all facets of our work - the Classroom, Chapel, Assignments, Student Council and Committees, Christian Service Outreach, to name just a few, and last, but certainly not least, our personal walk - in all of this He must have the pre-eminence. And if He has, our lives will show forth His praises, and our school will be a foretaste of heaven. May the blessed Holy Spirit be sovereign in every phase of this great work, and may His great Name be glorified in the whole of our testimony! Surely we could wish for nothing better for each of our students.

God has greatly blessed the class of '76 with many gifted people. The Retreat in Sept. started the class off on a great path in which unity was promoted, through class members ministering to one another with their gifts. I found the Biblical concept of Body Life (Eph 4) to be a reality in the class this year. Everybody pulled their own weight with zeal and a spirit of co-operation.

It has been a pleasure to work with dedicated people. My executive encouraged me and continually supported me. Their hard work paid off as many of the class members found sincere fellowship in the various activities they organized.

I thank God for His faithfulness and constant presence in our midst as He prepares the Class of '76 for service now and after graduation.

"Not one of the good promises which the Lord had made to the house of Israel failed; all came to pass." Joshua 21:45. Joshua recited a history which was full of victory and triumph for the Israelites and as we look back over this year I would like to leave this thought for our class. This guarantee of the Lord means just that, all He promises occurs. I recall Matt. 6:34 then verse 33 "Therefore do not be anxious for tomorrow; for tomorrow will care for itself . . . all these things shall be added to you." Over the school year pressures build up, in the years to come after OBC work pressures will build up, yet if we look to God first He will take away anxiety and care. What a Joyous Christian life we can have if we cease to worry about tomorrow! Early in this year I started to put this into practice. I tried not to think of the two exams next week or that preaching engagement. Instead I concentrated on today for "we shall always be with the Lord." 1 Thess 4:17

PHILOSOPHY OF STUDENT COUNCIL

We exist as representatives of the student body to establish school life programs and to act as a "cohesive" unit keeping harmony within the school. Every item of business both formal and informal must be approached with HONESTY and OPENNESS. Responsibility, that which has been placed on our shoulders, must be met squarely. To allow such responsibility to slip by (in any area) would be failure on our part. Strength lies in unity and unity is brought about in part by communication - honest, intelligent communication both within the council and with regards to the students themselves. No one of us can work well without the support of the rest and all should recognize the need for the other. One of our main objectives for this year was to make 'people' of the students, even to the extent of going out of our way. Make them feel 'good'; make them feel 'real'.

We tried to work hard, work well, keep in touch and be honest and open. We also prayed that the Love of Christ would shine through us.

Barb and Lois ponder the score.

I have certainly counted it a real privilege and honour to be able to serve the Lord on the Social-Rec. Committee this year. The Lord has richly blessed us with a very small core group for an executive. I believe that they are best described in Prov. 15:22. "Without consultation, plans are frustrated but with many counsellors they succeed." As an executive our plans have often been frustrated. Many times we wished that we didn't have to see those prolonged hours of rushing through last minute details. It was here that we had to acknowledge an "energy crisis" in our own lives. It often was a time where we had to watch the Spirit of God Himself mend those things that we had not been able to accomplish. We had to acknowledge this both in our "hayride" and "Quad Olympics". When we were right out of strength, the Spirit of God proved very strong and faithfully met us, above and beyond what we thought was possible.

I thank the Lord Jesus and you as students for allowing us to learn while serving you.

Bill Thorpe

Our purpose this year was to inform students of the work that God is doing on the foreign and home fields and to provide a source of strength and encouragement in the spiritual life of students. Also through chapels and the Missionary Conference we attempted to challenge you to serve on the foreign field.

This has been a profitable year for the committee. They have put themselves into their work and without them Noemi and I would have been lost. They did an excellent job and so are deeply appreciated by both of us. You, the student body, also made things easier. We had prayed that God would move your hearts to give financially to the missionary projects. This He wondrously did in two offerings as 73% of the $3,000,000 was received. We also thank you for your support and prayers for the past year. We found this year to be a challenge and a blessing in the service of our King.

In the days to come we would ask that you remember our Missionary Conference and your place in God's world program.

Devotional Committee

Guidance of the spiritual life at O.B.C. is a big responsibility. The functioning of the Devotional Committee starts work even before school begins, preparing the spiritual emphasis for the school retreat. This emphasis is continued throughout the year by diversified means. Small group Bible studies twice a semester boost and encourage sharing together and searching God's Word for guidance through difficult times. Divided chapels are utilized to help students find meaningful roles as Christian men or women. A day of prayer is set aside each term to build up the students and faculty in their concerns for each other and those around the world. Then there is a chapel period designated during the year in which some devotional aspect of student life is presented. Throughout the year individuals are encouraged to use the prayer rooms as a place to become better acquainted with God and to meet Him there for the refreshing pause in a busy day.

Time spent alone with Our Lord and Master is a time of intimate communion with Him for whom we live.

Marketplace Executives

Marketplace Writers

Maxaipa and Marketplace are O.B.C. student productions. Each depends upon the contribution of students for its very existence. This year, many hours which could have been given over to study, recreation, relaxation or fellowship have instead been directed towards these two productions. Some of you have been instrumental in the composition of these publications, and have made them what they are. Others of you have simply sat back and reaped the benefits of others' labours.

What you hold in your hands right now is a work of the Spirit which succeeded inspite of the indifference of the majority of the O.B.C. student body. To call a yearbook "a work of the Spirit" may seem to be stretching a point, but along with the hours of physical labour, went hours of prayer; prayer that the Holy Spirit might undertake and give strength to all areas of weakness, direction to all areas of confusion, and peace to all areas of anxiety. These student publications are our God's works. He has equipped each of us to help with these works: some as artists, some as writers, some as typists, some as "encouragers" and some as those who pray. Each of us has God-given talents as well as gifts from above. We are to use these to bring glory to our God and our King. The yearbook and newspaper are HIS publications, just as the Missions Conference was HIS conference, just as the student-faculty picnic was HIS picnic, just as the student choir was HIS choir, just as Ontario Bible College is HIS college!

Have you contributed to His enterprises?

This year's Student-Faculty retreat will never be forgotten (I'm glad you all loved!). I praise the Lord for the positive effects - unity. Queenston Heights turned out to be the ideal spot for the retreat. As much as we enjoyed the sun, fun and games, I think the highlight was Dr. Matheson on theme "Christians Building Christians," with their unique contribution and ministry in the body of Christ.

Faster than a speeding bullet!

Our Freshmen did not have what it takes to defeat the Faculty or Upperclassmen this year. They did manage to squeeze out a tie in the annual football game. However, the Faculty overthrew the Frosh in their baseball game (15-5?). The Frosh girls were also defeated by one point against the Upperclass girls in their football game. To save defeat in the Moonball game someone (we suspect a Freshman) "accidentally" punctured the Moon. Better luck to next year's Frosh!

The ladies' basketball team was this year again undefeated as a result of the many hours they spent in training.

The men's basketball team displayed its best action in the Quad Olympics. Squeezing past a tough opponent in Emmaus, OBC easily handled Central Baptist. The traditional rivalry with Emmanuel was a bit disappointing as OBC defeated them by a wide margin. For the first time in a number of years, OBC placed a team in the city basketball league. MUSICAL TEAMS' BIBLICAL PERSPECTIVE

To participate in the musical teams of OBC provides abundant OPPORTUNITIES for personal growth and development as well as Christian compassion and ministry to others. (II Cor. 5:18-19 - Such a divine priority, brings upon us OBLIGATIONS which we must understand and accept as demanding a high quality of life and service. (II Cor. 5:20) This is a group ministry whereby individuals CO-OPERATE TOGETHER to fulfill the work of the Lord, and to promote the ministry of OBC. (II Cor. 6:11)

Effectiveness in this ministry requires the appropriation of the grace of God for life and service. Prayer, the systematic study of the Scriptures, and obedience to the guidance of the Spirit are the chief means to receive the grace of God. (II Cor. 6:1, 3)

Motivation: "Let the Word of Christ dwell in you richly, singing with Grace in your hearts to the Lord." (Col. 3:16) The Word of God in our hearts, and the Grace of God as the Theme of our songs will give us a powerful Ministry of Music.

FRIDAY EVENING FELLOWSHIP

We met together to worship the Lord "in Spirit and in truth" and to know the presence of the Lord Jesus in our midst as was the experience of the early church. He did indeed meet with us for as the Scriptures say "God inhabits the praises of His people."

Excitement in the Christian Community! This year was the beginning of the OBC teaching team consisting of students and the OBC Faculty. We were received very well and the experience was invaluable as we served in five different churches in Toronto and Hamilton.

Chapels this year have been helpful and inspiring for the most part. It has been good to hear from our own faculty much of the time. Student Council felt the need to examine the doctrine of the Holy Spirit more closely. How can His power become a reality in our lives? Students were therefore presented with the opportunity to interact with a panel of our own professors on this very subject. Our bi-annual communion services were especially meaningful. As we sang, prayed, shared and had fellowship around the table, we especially felt His Spirit among us.

MISSIONS '74 - WHATEVER IT TAKES!

A time of inspiration and challenge brought to us by Rev. Elwyn Davies, Associate Director of the Bible Christian Union and Rev. Juan Salas, Director of the Mexican Latin America Mission. These two unique men were used by the Spirit of God to bring us face to face with the implications of Christian living for today and the memory of the words of the song, "Oh help me Lord, I pray."

Fellowship in the Word

The way to spend New Year's Eve - around the Lord's Table

Mrs. Lippman, the theologian

"Lord of the Universe, Hope of the World!"

Urbana was an unforgettable experience - with different memories but the common understanding - "I was there, too."

Urbana was the wonder of sitting in the Assembly Hall with 11,500 other Christians.

Urbana was great men and women of the world, to important issues with strong Biblical foundations: The Authority of the Word of God, The Person of Christ, Man, Evangelism and Social Concerns, the Biblical Basis of Missions.

Urbana was the smiling and sharing with a complete stranger - from "who knows where", yet there was a common bond because of their common faith.

Urbana was small Bible study and prayer groups where for some, a deep level of faith was born, or it was rekindled.

Urbana was seriously elective, and the most common mission and chapel geared to the interests of the students.

Urbana was great love, of Christ, of life, of people, of life.

Urbana was a time when the world was a small place, and we felt it.

Urbana was a beautiful experience, and we will never forget it. Will we return and see it again? We will, while there.

REFLECTIONS OF THE GRADUATING CLASS

A class who prays together
Stays together, and Lord You know
How much closer You've brought
Each one of us this year.

"If there is any encouragement in Christ,"
We hope that it will be because
We continue "being of the same mind,
Having the same love, being in full accord
And of one mind."

Lord, Your love is fantastic-
It "surpasses knowledge" and Fills us with all the fullness of God."

The knowledge that we have learned
Cannot be measured as it expands
By "renewal on the spirit of our minds."

Our awesome praise to You
Cannot be contained:
Your Spirit gives us freedom
To be and to be changed "into Your likeness,
From one degree of glory to another."
For this comes from the Lord,
Who is the Spirit.

Fellow Graduates,

I am very fond of the Biblical expression "bond of perfectness" or "a more excellent way." We have experienced this, in a small way, in the few years we have spent together. Let us not be deceived into thinking our Spiritual kinship must now be ended. It is only beginning and let us pray unceasingly for one another, that God will use us mightily in His service. The one consuming goal in our lives must be to glorify God and bring others into a faith relationship with our Lord Jesus Christ. Pray for one another, that we will all persevere, not becoming fatigued or subtly led away from our one consuming goal. Remember, a life entirely yielded to Christ is an extraordinarily rich and powerful life indeed. Don't forget the absolute necessity of interior preparation for every fresh external activity you do - for this battle we now fight we must fight solely by faith. Pray for one another, unceasingly, as we go forth to serve the Lord. Don't say "I will do this or that in Your service," but pray "What shall I do to serve Thee?" And without seeing our way beforehand, I know He will prepare a way before us which we have only to follow.

 Refreshing!

During this weekend, as never before, a sense of the family atmosphere was so real, so visible as, at a Grad Day, we took time to bear one another up in love and fellowship. As Mr. Buck and Mr. Taylor opened the Word to us, we opened our hearts to the Spirit of God as He chose to reveal Himself to us. Our time together was again marked by the amount of singing we, as a class, did. As we sang His praises, we could only bow in humble adoration, with hearts overflowing in His love, His salvation and His goodness to us in the past years at OBC. We leave these thoughts with you, the future grads of OBC, pointing you to the Spirit of the Living God to meet all your needs.

Class of '74, We Love You!

Is your future in Gospel
Evangelism?
...find out
through PTL
Short-Term
Service

Here is an exciting opportunity to give your Christian commitment a real-life test!

The mission field is wide open. In its expanding world-wide ministry of Scripture distribution and evangelism, the Pocket Testament League deploys workers on every continent. More recruits are needed now.

Get into the action as a PTL "short-termer" - for a summer or full year - as a missionary aid, sound truck projectionist, or versatile member of a mobile evangelistic team in Brazil, Mexico, Europe, or the inner cities of the U.S.A.

Can you qualify? This may be your open door to a full life in the Lord's service. The main requirement is an earnest desire to serve Him. Worth a try? For an application and full information, write today to:
